District 8 Trustee Cindy Paris Changes Title and Responsibilities

Eaton Rapids, Mich. – Her board responsibilities may have ended, but District 8 Trustee Cindy Paris will continue to volunteer for the VFW National Home for Children. Paris has already committed to working as a volunteer in the National Home booth at National Convention. Paris was a steady presence on the Board providing thoughtful and sound recommendations on difficult issues.

During her six-year term on the board, Paris made a difference first as committee member, then as chairman, of both the Public Relations Committee and the Policy and Bylaws Committee. Under her leadership, the Policy and Bylaw Committee facilitated a major revision to the VFW National Home for Children Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

“The families and children at the VFW National Home for Children will always be important to me. I look forward to seeing them for Illinois Day and other times when I can make myself useful to the National Home,” said Paris.

Trustee Paris of St. Charles, Ill. represented the Departments of Indiana and Illinois. Elected to the Board to fill the new term is Dave Havelly of Greenwood, In.
